15 ALL-SEASON ROOFTOP BARS TO ENJOY THIS FALL IN NYC

If you live in New York, you love rooftops. It's just a fact. Whether you're there to enjoy some drinks with friends or to take a great Insta, NYC has the rooftops to accommodate. Leave your thoughts of only spending time on rooftops in the summer behind. Here are the best all-season indoor and outdoor rooftops to enjoy year-round.

THE REFINERY ROOFTOP

Located on the rooftop of The Refinery, this rooftop has a clear view of the Empire State building. The Refinery Rooftop has a warm feel to it with its brick-lined walls. The indoor lounge also has the same feel to it, which is perfect for the winter.
