

The 9 Absolute Best Chocolate Chip Cookies in America, According to Chefs

4. Double Chocolate Chunk Cookie at Trademark Taste + Grind, NYC

"It is the signature dessert in their coffee shop and it's a winner. It contains both white chocolate and milk chocolate chips, topped with sea salt, making it the perfect combination of sweet and salty. I discovered this cookie when Trademark opened in April of 2016. I was told that this was a must have! This cookie is heaven in your mouth. I try to limit myself to eating it once a month—sometimes I have it more often than that. Trademark serves its cookie 'medium rare.' It's ooey gooey on the inside with a slight crunch on the outside. Stand alone, I need a glass of milk with it." – Shane LeBlanc, Executive Chef at Park Avenue Tavern in New York City

The Same Page

