The season isn't over yet! Here, 2017's best rooftop bars in New York City, with something for every type. Cool kids should head to the Standard High Line; colleagues out for happy hour should reserve the "Corner Couch" at the Peninsula's Salon de Ning; and everyone should venture across the river to Williamsburg's William Vale hotel for one of the finest views of the city.

No dating apps necessary: At this grand, industrial-chic fusion of indoor-outdoor space, the exposed brick, braided lights, retractable glass roof, and glow of the nearby Empire State Building join forces to play matchmaker. The strong cocktails—several of which come in "caddies" with multiple servings—also help.
