

GUEST of a GUEST

15 All-Season Rooftop Bars For Drinking With A View This Winter

by Stephanie Maida · November 28, 2017

New Yorkers love a good rooftop in the summer, but you hardly have to settle for a typical sidewalk-level spot just because the temps have dropped. Behold the magic of heat lamps and retractable roofs! Some of our favorite soaring lounges are open all year long, meaning you can booze with a view while staying cozy this winter.

Refinery Rooftop

Hang out under a glass roof and canopy of lights at the stunning Refinery Rooftop and snag some amazing pics of the Empire State Building while you're at it. Head here for brunch, lunch, or date-night dinner and you won't be disappointed.

Refinery Rooftop, 63 W 38th St.

Photo via [Refinery Rooftop]